

Honor your loved one by helping a Virginia veteran

Your contribution to the Virginia Wounded Warrior Program will help a Virginia veteran and his or her family.

The Virginia Wounded Warrior Program (VWWP) serves Virginia's veterans, members of the National Guard and Reserves not in active federal service, and their families.

VWWP is a statewide delivery and response system for veterans and family members who need behavioral health, primary healthcare, rehabilitative services, and community support across the state.

Five regional programs offer case management, care coordination, linkages to healthcare, behavioral healthcare and veterans benefits, including financial assistance and employment services.

VWWP is different from other wounded warrior programs and projects. All donations to VWWP are reserved for Virginia veterans of all eras and their families.

Donate online at www.dvs.virginia.gov/donations.shtml. Or, mail your contribution to the Virginia Wounded Warrior Program, care of Veterans Services Foundation, 900 East Main St., 6th Floor, West Wing, Richmond, Va 23219.

Contributions may be tax exempt under U.S. Code Section 170 (c) and Code of Virginia §2.2-2719. Donations can be used only for the VWWP and cannot revert to the Commonwealth's General Fund.
